Step One: Set up your own facebook page

Go to : www.facebook.com – you need to have an email address to sign up

The screenshot shows the Facebook homepage in a Windows Internet Explorer browser. The browser's address bar displays [http://www.facebook.com/?ref=home#\[\]?ref=home](http://www.facebook.com/?ref=home#[]?ref=home). The page features the Facebook logo at the top left. To the right of the logo are input fields for 'Email' and 'Password', a 'Login' button, and links for 'Keep me logged in' and 'Forgot your password?'. Below the login section, the main heading reads 'Facebook helps you connect and share with the people in your life.' This is accompanied by a graphic of a world map with several orange person icons connected by dashed lines. To the right of this graphic is the 'Sign Up' section, which includes the text 'It's free, and always will be.' and a series of input fields: 'First Name:', 'Last Name:', 'Your Email:', 'Re-enter Email:', and 'New Password:'. Below these fields are dropdown menus for 'I am:' (with a 'Select Sex:' label), 'Month:', 'Day:', and 'Year:'. A link 'Why do I need to provide this?' is located below the birthday fields. A green 'Sign Up' button is positioned at the bottom of the sign-up form. Below the sign-up form, there is a link that says 'Create a Page for a celebrity, band or business.' At the bottom of the page, there is a language selection menu with options: English (US), Español, Português (Brasil), Français (France), Deutsch, Italiano, العربية, हिन्दी, 中文(简体), and 日本語. The footer of the page includes 'Facebook © 2010' and a list of links: Mobile, Find Friends, Badges, About, Advertising, Developers, Careers, Privacy, Terms, and Help. The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the Start button, several open applications (Junk E-mail - Microsoft..., iTunes, Welcome to Faceboo..., Paint Shop Pro), and the system tray with the Internet icon, volume, and a clock showing 9:37 AM.

Step One: Set up your own facebook page

Type in the word in the box (Security Check)

The screenshot shows the Facebook homepage in a Windows Internet Explorer browser. The address bar displays the URL <http://www.facebook.com/?ref=home#1?ref=home>. The browser's menu bar includes File, Edit, View, Favorites, Tools, and Help. The Norton security toolbar is visible above the Facebook page. The Facebook header features the logo and a login section with fields for Email (containing 'office@envirodesign.com.au') and Password, and a 'Login' button. Below the header, the main content area includes the slogan 'Facebook helps you connect and share with the people in your life.' accompanied by a world map with user icons. To the right, the 'Sign Up' section is active, stating 'It's free, and always will be.' and 'Security Check'. The security check prompt asks the user to enter two words, 'den' and 'but', separated by a space. A text input box contains the word 'den'. Below the input box are 'Back' and 'Sign Up' buttons. At the bottom of the page, there are language selection options and a copyright notice for 2010. The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the Start button, several open applications (Junk E-mail, iTunes, Welcome to Facebook, Paint Shop Pro), and the system tray with the date and time (9:40 AM).

The 'Basic Info' section provides details about the club's founding on Monday, February 22nd, 1965 at 8 p.m. at a meeting held in the Cobden Civic Hall. The 'Detailed Info' section includes the website <http://www.cobdenrotary.org.au> and a company overview describing the club's history and mission. The mission statement states: "Throughout the year other formats are adopted including working... (read more) The privileges of being a Rotarian are: fellowship with similar-minded people; unique opportunities to serve your community, improve your vocation, and promote regional and international friendship; establish a broad acquaintance with leaders of other businesses and professions; participate in interesting and stimulating programs; meet other Rotarians at neighbouring clubs and throughout the rest of the world. Rotary membership also carries responsibilities: observing the Rotary "Four Way Test" (regular attendance at weekly meetings, maintaining an annual attendance of at least 60%; introduction of new members; serving on Club committees; attending District conferences and activities; attending annual International Conventions.). The Rotary Four Way Test is applied to everything we think, say or do. It requires to consider: 1. Is it the truth?" The right sidebar contains advertisements for "Free Pokies" (youplaytime.net), "Come. See. Conquer." (Mafia Wars), and "Best WWII Shooter Game" (global.won.com). The bottom of the browser window shows the Windows taskbar with the Start button, several open applications (Inbox - Microsoft Outlook, iTunes, Facebook (1) | Rotar..., Paint Shop Pro, eWallet - environ Wal...), and the system tray with the Internet Explorer icon, a 100% zoom level, and the time 10:02 AM.
